

Do not change the Indiana Telephone Privacy law. Since the law has been in effect, I have not had to struggle on a daily basis answering the phone to telemarketers. Calls came at all times of the day and evening, disturbing all in our family. Please, do not make any changes to our privacy law.